Areas of study	In principle, all courses are open to exchange/visiting students, as long as the student has taken any required pre-requisites for a given course. Common curriculum courses and courses offered at NUS may be possible on a case-by-case basis. Note that it can be difficult to get spots in NUS courses, and each NUS course is worth 4 MCs. (Yale-NUS courses are worth 5 MCs.) Exchange/visiting students can take a maximum of 1-2 courses outside of Yale-NUS. Course offerings differ by semester. Students are advised to be flexible and have multiple course options in mind. The updated course listings for academic year 2018-2019 will be provided following acceptance to Yale-NUS College.
Language requirements for non-native English speakers	For exchange/visiting students not currently studying in English, the following requirements should be met: TOEFL The following minimum scores are required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 100 on the internet-based TOEFL</li> <li>• 600 on the paper-based TOEFL</li> <li>• 250 on the computer-based TOEFL</li> </ul> IELTS You may submit the IELTS (International English Language Testing System) test in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum acceptable score is 7. If TOEFL or IELTS scores are not available, please contact Yale-NUS for further information. Students from Yale-NUS exchange partners do not need to submit proof of test scores.
Advising	The International Programs team at the Centre for International and Professional Experience (CIPE) is available for general advising. Assistant Deans in each residential college provide exchange/visiting students with academic advising.
Student's pass and visa	International students studying in Singapore are required to have their "Student's Pass" approved by the Immigration and Checkpoints Authority (ICA) of Singapore. Your offer of admission to Yale-NUS is conditional upon your successful application of your Student's Pass. Those applying for a Student's Pass with a duration of more than six months are required to do a medical examination (details will be provided in the letter of offer). NUS Registrar's Office will apply for the entry visa and an In-Principle Approval (IPA) letter for all international students through the ICA Student's Pass Online Application and Registration (SOLAR) system. All international students will then be required to fill out an online eForm 16 and print a copy to be brought to Singapore. For international students who do not require an entry visa to

Student jobs/part-time employment	Exchange/visiting students holding a student's pass are not allowed to engage in any part-time employment in Singapore during the semester, including on-campus employment. See next section regarding possible summer internships in Southeast Asia.
Exchange/visiting student participation in CIPE opportunities	Students may be eligible to apply for select opportunities through the Centre for International and Professional Experience (CIPE). These opportunities are not guaranteed. Spots are limited and highly competitive. Research opportunities with Yale-NUS faculty: Exchange/visiting students are not allowed to take paid positions but may participate in voluntary research if selected by a professor at Yale-NUS. Learning Across Boundaries (LABs): Students attending Yale-NUS in the spring semester are eligible to apply for Spring LABs. If selected, students are responsible for all associated costs. http://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/co-curricular-programs/labs/ Summer Internships in Southeast Asia: Students attending Yale-NUS in the spring semester are eligible to apply for CIPE summer internships in the Southeast Asia region. If selected, students are responsible for arranging their own visa/work authorisation and for covering all costs associated with the internship.
Health insurance coverage	NUS provides health insurance, which exchange/visiting students pay in the miscellaneous student fees.
Health facilities and resources on and off campus	Students are encouraged to visit the nearby University Health Centre or the nearby National University Hospital for medical care. Wellness Works, part of the Dean of Students office, oversees the well-being and mental health of the students at Yale-NUS College. This includes providing services and resources to manage and reduce stress; and establishing the foundation toward a flourishing self and community.
Learning accommodations	Some learning accommodations may be available for exchange students during their time at Yale-NUS College. Students should note that accommodations granted in Singapore may be different from what they receive at their home institutions. More information about learning accommodations can be found here: https://teaching.yale-nus.edu.sg/student-support/learning-accommodation/
